It actively fosters a vibrant literary and cultural environment by organizing a wide range of events throughout the academic year. These include guest lectures, seminars, workshops, poetry reading sessions, open mic events, quiz competitions, and both online and offline literary contests, attracting participation from students of NIT Trichy as well as other institutions across the country. The Guild also maintains an active presence through regular online events and consistent engagement with students via its Instagram page.

Over the years, the English Guild has had the privilege of hosting and facilitating interactions with several distinguished writers and scholars. Notable among them are renowned Indian English poet Jayanta Mahapatra; poet, fiction writer, translator, and academic Srilata Krishnan; and award-winning young poet Nitin Kushalappa. The Guild has also welcomed esteemed speakers such as Dr. Anandita Pan (IIT Hyderabad), Dr. Kavya Krishna (IIT Varanasi), Kavitha Krishnamoorthy (CELTA Trainer), and Gokul S., IAS, among others.

In addition to its independent initiatives, the English Guild regularly collaborates with various prominent student bodies on campus to enhance the scope and impact of its activities. These include Balls by Picasso, the official English Literary and Debating Society of NIT Trichy; The Thespians' Society, the institute's dramatics club; Streaks, the official fashion and modeling page of NIT Trichy; and Pixelbug, the institute's photography and videography club. Through such collaborations, the Guild continues to promote creativity, critical thinking, and interdisciplinary engagement among students.

Lexicon — The Annual Literary Fest

Lexicon is the annual literary fiesta organized by the English Guild, the official association of the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences at the National Institute of Technology Tiruchirappalli. Conceived as a platform to celebrate language, literature, and creative expression, Lexicon aims to foster intellectual engagement and artistic exploration among students from diverse academic backgrounds. It is typically conducted as a week-long literary fest featuring a blend of academic, creative, and interactive events.

Lexicon is designed to encourage participation not only from NIT Trichy students but also from students of other institutions, thereby promoting a broader exchange of ideas and perspectives. Lexicon comprises a diverse range of events catering to varied literary interests: Eminent academicians and writers are invited to deliver lectures on literature, culture, and career development. Events like Debate competition involve multiple rounds of argumentation on contemporary and abstract topics, encouraging critical thinking and articulation skills. Quiz competitions are conducted to test participants' knowledge of literature, language, and popular culture, often witnessing enthusiastic participation. Competitions such as poetry and creative writing include various formats like blackout poetry, slam poetry, and traditional verse writing. To ensure wider participation, Lexicon also features online competitions including micro-fiction writing, meme creation, typography, and photography contests. Activities such as Game Night and open mic sessions add a creative and recreational dimension to the fest, encouraging informal interaction and artistic expression.

Lexicon witnesses active participation from students across departments, reinforcing the interdisciplinary nature of the event. The hybrid format, comprising both online and offline events enhances accessibility and inclusivity, allowing participants from various institutions to engage meaningfully.

Alumni Testimonials

“The MA in English course at NIT Trichy provided me with a strong foundation in my domain knowledge. The faculty at the department offered us invaluable mentorship and equipped us with the right skillsets, academic rigour and discipline even amidst the challenges of the pandemic. The well-designed course with a right mix of language, literature, and ELT components, effectively prepared me to appear for the UGC NET examination without any additional coaching and helped me clear the same on my first attempt. The research exposure and publication opportunities received during my MA project played a crucial role in enabling me to secure doctoral candidacy at premier institutions in India and abroad. My time at NIT Trichy allowed me to interact with students from diverse streams and actively take up several positions of responsibility including the organisation of department level programmes to institute level cultural fests. These opportunities trained me and my classmates in navigating professional workspaces and sowed the seeds of diverse career paths in front of us. I am truly indebted to my MA time at DoHSS NITT for my academic standing today and the friends I cherish.
